

The rules and regulations are described in chapter 3. The records for control are files which are separately applicant wise and appeal wise. The applications and appeals are also tabulated in register in prescribed form 3 and computer by which regular monitoring is done.